

Ethical Tea Partnership

Improving the lives of tea workers and their environment

This is to confirm that the Korakundah Estate and Factory

Owned by The United Nilgiri Tea Estates Co. Ltd.

Producing the following selling mark(s):

Korakundah,

is considered a

PARTICIPANT

in the Ethical Tea Partnership programme. The ETP is pleased to be working with the estate/factory on the continuous improvement of the welfare and working conditions of its workers, as well as on environmental sustainability. The Estate's selling mark(s) is/are approved for purchase by the ETP member companies.

Sarah Roberts,
Executive Director ETP

Expiration date: 12/08/2012 *

**ETP reserves the right to suspend this participation in the ETP programme if sufficient improvements are not made and/or communicated to ETP*

This document remains the property of the Ethical Tea Partnership

Printed on 100% recycled paper